May Hepatitis Awareness Month. Our Mayor Dean Fortin gave us the official Proclamation.

May 9, 2011, 9:59 AM

CITY OF VICTORIA

PROCLAMATION

"Hepatitis Month May 2011"

- WHEREAS HepCBC Hepatitis C Education and Prevention Society is a local, non-profit, community-based organization whose mission statement is: "To provide education, prevention and support for those living with HCV"; and
- WHEREAS approximately 300,000 Canadians are affected by hepatitis B and approximately 300,000 – 600,000 Canadians are affected by hepatitis C; and
- WHEREAS many of those living with hepatitis are currently unaware of their illness as hepatitis can be asymptomatic for up to 20 years after initial infection; and
- WHEREAS The World Hepatitis Alliance has declared July 28 World Hepatitis Day, during which HepCBC will campaign to raise public awareness about hepatitis that day, and in addition throughout the entire month of May;

"NOW, THEREFORE I do hereby proclaim the month of May, 2011 as "HEPATITIS C AWARENESS MONTH" and the day of July 28th, 2011 as "HEPATITIS AWARENESS DAY" in the CITY OF VICTORIA, CAPITAL CITY of the PROVINCE of BRITISH COLUMBIA.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand this 28th day of April, Two Thousand and Eleven.

DEAN FORTIN
MAYOR
BRITISH COLUMBIA
